

NEW WEATHER GIRL.

Hello everybody, I'm weather girl today,
'Cos your regular weather girl Susie has run away with that dashing Peter Smith, who happens to be wed
to the Senior Co-ordinator who kicked him out of bed.
I've been promoted from being a gopher.
Nobody else took up this brilliant offer.
What? Get on with it. Sorry, I forgot;
Boys and girls and everybody else, it's going to be hot.
That Susie was giving you thunder and rain,
but I've borrowed the weather from Benidorm Spain.
What? Tell it how it is? People travelling together,
are always complaining about your miserable weather.
Why can't you show pictures of sun sea and sand;
Have music, people singing and a band.
I have a great voice — could sing the weather fine.
What ? Finish off? Well folks hold this line and I'll give you all again, a glorious tomorrow.
I wonder whose lovely weather I can borrow?
What? You are giving me the sack but why?
Oh, well, sorry folks. Looks like it's good-bye.
Elizabeth Burdis